THE NEWS.

For the past ten days a remarkable and startling state of affairs has existed at Dodge City, Kansas. Several prominent Kansas City attorneys left to-day for Topeka, to petition Gov. Click to place the town under marshal law. The trouble is the culmination of a long-standing feud between two elements in that place. Dodge City has long borne the reputation of a hard town. It is one of the few points in Kansas where saloons are run openly and gambling is legitimate.

Ex-Speaker Egan, of the New Jersey House of Representatives, was committed to jail at Newark under an indictment for attempting to bribe Assemblyman Armitage.

Two German residents, C. H. J. Muller, an undertaker, and William Bashorn, a brewer, both married men, had a duel with broadswords at Bowmanville, a suburb of Chicago. Both were married men and the trouble was about another woman.

Col. Torres, with 300 troops attacked the Apache Indians in the mountains, killing eleven, and lost five of his men. The Apaches were hopelessly routed.

Gen. Grant's mother died in Jersey City, aged 71 years.

Mrs. Maria Stoddard, wife of the rector of St. John's Episcopal Church at Jersey City, N. J., was shot and killed by a pistol in her husband's hands. As he took the weapon to the adjoining room the pistol struck the door and was discharged, the bullet entering his wife's head. She fell in his arms and died. She was 30 years old and beautiful.

The local steamboat inspectors of New York have refused to issue certificates to the ferryboats plying on the North and East rivers which store their illuminating gas in tanks in their holds, on the ground that a great explosion would be liable to occur in case of collision.

The late cyclone in Missouri has done incalculable damage. Many lives have been lost, and loss to property in the line of the tempest has been unparalleled. Towns have been damaged to such an extent that they are not recognizable.

The Ohio Brewers and Distillers' Association, at their convention in Cleveland, adopted resolutions declaring they would oppose in a body at the polls all candidates for office arrayed against their business, and that they would employ counsel to test immediately in the Supreme Court the constitutionality of the Scott law.

A despatch from Deadwood, Dakota, reports that a snow storm had raged there for twelve hours, blocking up all the railroads and suspending business and farm work of all kinds.

The rumor that the dynamiters intended to damage the Welland canal has led the authorities at St. Catherine's, Ont., to take extra precautions to protect the exposed points.

The Northern and Southern Telegraph Company have filed a certificate of incorporation in New York. Its lines are projected between New York and Charleston, S. C.

Middle and Southern News
Moosic, a town below Scranton, Pa., was badly shaken up by an explosion of powder in a powder magazine at a coal breaker. One man was almost torn to pieces, and another has not yet been found. Windows in nearly all the houses in the town were broken.

Judge Bond, of the United States Court, at Richmond, Va., decided in favor of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company obtaining an injunction to prevent property from being sold for taxes, where the company had offered payment in coupons.

The village of Waterloo, Ind., was completely destroyed by the recent cyclone. The fine iron bridge over the White river was torn to pieces. The storm crossed over into Ohio and did considerable damage in Preble county.

Mark Spicker, a travelling agent was put off a train of the Northern Central railroad in a drenching rain has recovered damages of $5,000 at Philadelphia. He had offered a ticket two years old which the conductor refused and put him off the train.

In a moment of insanity Chas. Edward Hanson brutally murdered Mr. Chas. B. White, an aged gentleman, at the Hanson estate in Howard county, Md. The details of the murder are horrible.

Returns from the election in the third district of West Virginia indicate the election of Snyder, Democrat, to Congress by 2,000 majority over Brown, Republican.

Captain W. S. McIntyre, a Hudson river steamboat captain, lost $125,000 in bonds and $375 in cash in New York. He thinks his pocket was picked.

Hon. Philip B. Thompson, tried at Harrisburg, Ky., for the murder of Walter H. Davis, has been acquitted.

Washington News.

It is estimated at the Treasury Department that the payments to be made during the present month on account of pensions will amount to 10,000,000.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a warrant for $125,000 to be paid to the Lee heirs as the price of the Arlington estate.

Col. Unda, chief of staff of Gen. Fuero, of the Chihuahua army, who is in El Paso, says that the movement of Gen. Crook across the Mexican border is not only approved by the Mexican government but that Gen. Fuero has instructions to take the field in charge of the troops stationed in Chihuahua to cooperate with Gen. Crook in the Apache campaign.

The Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service having been informed of the establishment of quarantine at Galveston, Texas, and New Orleans, La., has issued an order directing that henceforth all mail for Cuba and Mexico be forwarded via New York city.

Mr. Charles Lyman resigned his position as chief clerk of the United States treasurer's office, and was sworn in as chief examiner for the civil service commission.

The President has removed Col. C. Irving Ditty, collector of internal revenue at Baltimore, and appointed J. Henry Sellman in his place.

Ex-Senator Windom is said to have under consideration an offer which has been made to him of the vice presidency of the Florida Ship Canal and Transit Company.

The bureau of statistics of the Treasury Department reports the value of the domestic breadstuffs exported during the month of April, 1888, to be $12,465,318; for the corresponding month last year, $9,908,189; exported for four months ended April 30th, ultimo, $61,915,787; corresponding period last year, $45,475,812; for the ten months ended April 30th ultimo, $179,738,343; corresponding period last year, $157,619,727.

The Washington and Chesapeake railway company have placed on record a mortgage to secure bonds in the amount of $1,000,000 in favor of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, of New York city.

Foreign News.

LONDON, May 16.—Fitzharris, the cab driver, was found guilty in Dublin yesterday of being an accessory after the fact to the murder of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, and was sentenced to penal servitude for life. The grand jury at Dublin have found true bills for conspiracy to murder against Kingston, Gibney and Hanley, who were charged with conspiracy to murder Pool, and a true bill for threatening to murder against Mathias Brady, who was charged with making threats against the life of the foreman of the jury which convicted his brother, Joe Brady.

The North German Gazette attempts to prove by statistics that the danger of contracting trichinosis from American pork is sixty times greater than it is from German pork.

The report of the discovery of an infernal machine on board a transatlantic steamer is denied by the head constable at Liverpool.

AMUSEMENTS.

PIC-NIC.

Complimentary Benefit to the Manhattan Base Ball Club, Monday, May 14, 1888, by Mr. John C. Ricks, at Ricks's Park, 7th and Broadway streets, N. W.

Acknowledging the worthiness of the Manhattan Base Ball Club, and feeling the pride of a Washingtonian, I have made arrangements to tender to the above named club a complimentary benefit as the players, although baseballists of great merit, they are of limited means, and it is only by the operation of the citizens of the District of Columbia that they can be successful as a club. Therefore I call upon my patrons, friends and the public in general to assist me in making this the first picnic of the season a success by their presence and patronage. Yours respectfully, J. C. RICKS.

The club will serve as a committee to Mr. Ricks in attending to the comfort and pleasure of those who may be present.
